THEIR EXCELLENCIES' MISSIVE

Unto the noble and just populace of Arn Hold do We, Konrad and Kortland, chosen Baron and Baroness of these lands, send greetings and well wishes.

It is with great excitement that we look forward to the Baronial Encampment at Uprising. We ask that everyone who is participating in the encampment please assist in the set up and take down of all of the Baronial items that help make the Arn Hold encampment the best in Artemesia. We are confident in everyone's ability to jump in and assist when they see something that needs to be done.

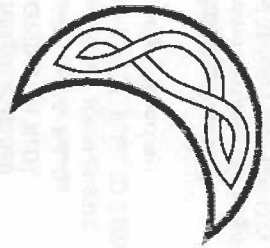

At this time we would announce to the populace of Arn Hold our intention to descend from the thrones of Arn Hold. We have conferred with Their Royal Majesties Reinmar and Albreda regarding this matter and they have designed a Bid and Polling procedure that will best suit the needs of our barony. Being the representative of Arn Hold is a glorious thing and we would welcome any who have intentions in bidding for this station to contact us with any questions they might have. You will find all dates and requirements for Baron and Baroness following in this issue of the Moose Call. We would also remind everyone this is not a "voting" procedure; ultimately the Crown of Artemesia, after receiving consultation from the populace of Arn Hold, has the final decision.

Done by Our hand on this 20th day of May from Our manor house deep within the lands of Arn Hold.

KONRAD

BARONESS

In 1599 her tomb was opened and her body was found to be incorrupt. Because of the song in her heart when she was being married to a pagan, she is known as the patron saint of music.

I hope you have all enjoyed these articles of the saints' lives. This is the last one, but please look forward to my next series on the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World.

A SAINT'S LIFE

THE LIFE OF SAINT CECILIA

In third century Rome, there was a young girl who had devoted herself to Christianity. Her father was in the Senate and married her for political reasons to a nobleman. His name was Valerian and he was a pagan. At their wedding, while the pagan music was playing, in her heart she was singing to God and praying.

On their wedding night, she told him that she had a guardian angel that protects her virginity. If he wanted to see this angel, he would need to be purified. He agreed and so she sent him to Bishop Urbanus who baptized him. When he returned to her, she was praying and next to her was an angel. The angel placed crowns on their heads and granted Valerian a favor. Valerian requested that his brother also be baptized. When his brother, Tibertius, came to visit them, he was won over to Christianity by their story.

At that time in Rome, the Christians were being heavily persecuted and martyred. The two brothers took it upon themselves to give the martyred Christians a proper burial. In doing this, they brought attention to themselves and the prefect, Turcius Almachius, sentenced them to death. An officer of the prefect, Maximus, was converted by the brothers, and was martyred with them. Cecelia buried them together in one tomb at her villa.

Cecelia continued her ministry and was persecuted for it. She was captured and tortured. The Romans tried to kill her by suffocating her. They closed her into a bath and turned up the heat, yet she remained unharmed. An officer then came in with his sword and tried to behead her. After several unsuccessful tries, he fled. She was left wounded, but survived for several days. In that time she was able to make dispositions in favour of the poor, and provide that after her death her house should be dedicated as a church. She was buried next to her husband.

ARN HOLD IS MY BIRTHPLACE

On the 1st of July of this year I pack soul and baggage off to the adjoining Kingdom of An Tir, soon to reside in the small hamlet of Heppner, Oregon. I will look back to many good gentles who embraced me, encouraged me, and taught me to live by the slogan: "What can I do to help others live the dream?"

To Baron Konrad, to Baroness Kortland, I owe much, for they were an inspiration to me to carry the banner of this Barony with pride and enthusiasm.

Wherever I might pitch my pavilion, Arn Hold is the birthplace of Brother Timothy.

To all of you, for all you do, vivat!

Timothy Brother, better known as "Brother Timothy"
