OPEN FOR BIDS

THEIR EXCELLENCIES' MISSIVE

Greetings Citizens of Arn Hold from Konrad and Kortland, Baron and Baroness.

Uprising was wonderful. We were filled with great pride for the members of our populace that worked so hard and participated in so many events. Mu'allinah Yasmeena coordinated the Equestrian activities and displayed a grand procession for all of the Kingdom to admire; Lord Godwin stewarded all of the Archery activities for Uprising with dignity and grace. Many individuals participated in the Laurel's Prize Bardic, Laurel's Prize Tourney, the Unbelted Tournament, the William Marshall Tournament, and a variety of different war scenarios. We thank you all for sharing your talents and endeavors with the rest of the kingdom.

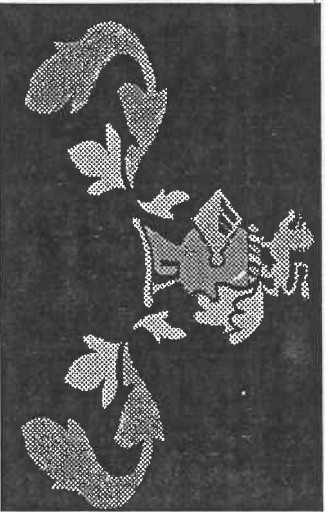

We would like to thank everyone that worked so hard in making the Barony of Arn Hold Encampment at Uprising so great. This year was wonderful. THL Braden did a fantastic job coordinating everything for us this year with the assistance of Don Gruffydd. Lady Teckla again coordinated the Baronial Potluck on Friday evening, and the culinary talents of the Barony were displayed. We thank everyone for making our last Uprising Encampment as Baron and Baroness memorable. VIVAT to you all!

The deadline for bid submissions for the next Baron and Baroness of Arn Hold has passed. Their Majesties have received four letters of intent for this station. Maitre Guillaume de la Rapier and Mu'allinah Yasmeena, THL Alric of Ashfield and THL Catherine Owain, Landgraf Baron Sir Sagan von Osten-see and Dame Kathelyne dubh Fraser, and Lord Aaron de Paladin and Lady Freydis the Good. We urge everyone to approach these individuals to discuss their expectations for the Barony of Arn Hold. Please read their cover letters following in this Moose Call and seek them out at fighter practices, populace meetings and forums where you may obtain a complete copy of their bids in their entirety. We are confident that any of these individuals would lead the Barony into a bright future.

Done by our hands this 19th day of June from our manor house deep within the lands of Arn Hold.

Konrad
Baron

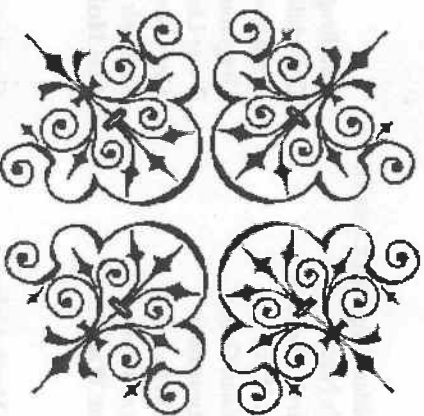

Kortland
Baroness

When all is said and done, the prosperity of the Barony is of the utmost importance. To serve the Barony of Arn Hold is our goal. We believe our experience and expertise will be invaluable in keeping the Barony of Arn Hold strong and prosperous. Should we be chosen to serve as the next Baron and Baroness of Arn Hold, we would endeavor to make our every effort prove this. We are grateful for the opportunity to present our bid and thank you for your time and consideration.

In friendship and service,

Sir Sagan and Dame Kathelyne

BARONIAL FORUM

A Baronial Forum will be held Wednesday, July 10th, at 7:00 PM. This will be a formal event, so please come in garb. This will be an opportunity to ask questions of the couples who have placed bids for Baron and Baroness.

The populace is encouraged to attend!

The Forum will be held in the IEA Building lower floor. The IEA Building is located at 620 N. 6th Street in Boise.

Unto Their Majesties Reinmar and Albrede, Their Excellencies Konrad and Kortland, and the populace of the Barony of Arn Hold, do Landsgraf Baron Sir Sagan von Osten-See and Dame Kathelyne dubb Fraser send greetings.

With Your kind indulgence, we humbly submit our bid for consideration as Fifth Baron and Baroness of the Barony of Arn Hold.

Sir Sagan has participated in the S.C.A. for twenty-five years and Dame Kathelyne for nine years. In that time, each of us has held several various offices. In addition, Sir Sagan served as Baron of Westermar and Prince of the Mists in the Kingdom of the West. All of these offices required the use of organizational skills and common sense in order to accomplish the tasks at hand. Our combined experience covers many areas of service within the Society, which we feel gives us a solid base to do a great job as the Fifth Baron and Baroness of Arn Hold.

We believe the Baron and Baroness hold everyone's good time in their hands. This belief would be ever present in all aspects of our stewardship. We are willing and capable of taking on the responsibilities if chosen for this honor and would work in the best interest of the Barony. In addition, we look forward to serving the populace of the Barony, in part, by working with the Baronial Officers in order to maintain the good works already set place by prior Baron's and Baroness'. In addition we hope to encourage Officers to make the most of their office and help them in the performance of their duties. Our goal being to insure the business of the Barony is handled in a timely manner and within the guidelines as described in Corpora, the By-Laws of the S.C.A. and Kingdom law.

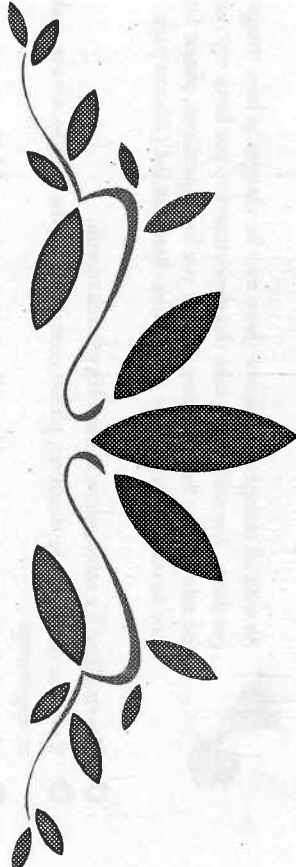

We would continue to support and encourage activities currently enjoyed by the members of the Barony, as well as encourage new activities and areas of interest. In addition, we would like to also promote participation in armored combat, period fencing and the equestrian arts. We intend to promote the recruitment of new members in addition to satisfying the needs of the current membership. It is our belief the Barony can only prosper and grow with the infusion of "new blood", thus the broadening the base of our membership.

Communication is an essential element of any organization, and the Barony of Arn Hold is no exception. Through the use of an "open door" policy, we hope to provide a platform where any member of the Barony can feel free to discuss new ideas or problems regarding Baronial policies or activities with us. As in all organizations, problems will arise from time to time requiring diplomacy and tact. We are capable of handling these occurrences in a mature manner. It will be our goal to resolve such problems in a way that minimizes the affect the situation might have on the Barony as a whole.

We know travel will be required and this will not pose a problem for either of us. In addition, we have a large vehicle, utility trailer and are capable of transporting and storing the Baronial regalia.
