THEIR EXCELLENCIES' MISSIVE

Unto the glorious populace of Arn Hold do Alric and Catherine, Baron and Baroness, send fondest greetings.

As we return from the war-torn lands of Atenveldt, we are gratified to find our lands and our populace safe and well. We give our profound thanks to those who assisted us or offered assistance to us while we were at the Estralla War, and hope that all had fun (despite the weather), and traveled home in safety after the war's conclusion.

Once things dried out enough for everyone to come out from under cover, Artemisia and her allies fared very well on the battlefield, on the archery range, and in the Arts and Sciences competition. We swept all of our foes from the field, and helped to secure the heavy fighting, archery and A&S banners. Vivat to all who participated!

Three of our Baronal members represented the Kingdom in the Equestrian tournaments that were held at the war: Mu'allimah Yasmeena, Lady Isabelle, and Lady Erin. Mu'allimah Yasmeena also sponsored a Frossayeah, which is a Middle Eastern tournament. This tournament was won by Lord Jacques, the Kingdom Equestrian Marshall for Atenveldt. We are also proud to announce that Lady Isabelle rode in the Queens' Champion tournament on Sunday.

The Barony was also well-represented in the Arts and Sciences competition, as three of the five Artemisian entries came from among our talented members: Lady Elisith GilleBrighde, Lady Ruth the Widow, and Mu'allimah Yasmeena. Congratulations all on helping our war allies win the Arts and Sciences banner! And our very own Countess Kortland Stirling Mayfair participated by offering her services as a judge. An Arts and Sciences competition cannot take place without the volunteer efforts of the judges.

Mu'allimah Yasmeena must have been incredibly busy at the war, as she also took top honors in a Middle Eastern dance competition that was sponsored by the Barony of Atenveldt. Huzzah, Yasmeena! Hope you're resting up.

Maitre Guillaume reports that, though the numbers of Artemisian rapier fighters were small, they were honorable, chivalrous, and formidable. Our allied rapier fighters were outnumbered over 2-to-1, and, even though they were displaced on their fighting field on Sunday, their spirit never dimmed and they fought with valor and had a good time after all.

We would also like to take this opportunity to congratulate Arn Hold's newest peer, Hachmood Braden. His vigil was well attended, if a bit soggy, and the ceremony in which he was elevated to the Order of the Laurel was very moving. Congratulations Braden, on an honor well deserved!

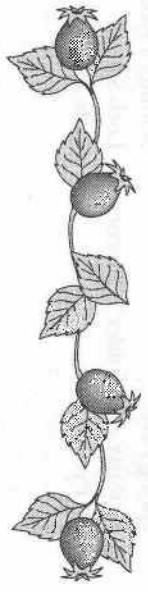

Arms in April of 1977 when Arn Hold was still a part of the Kingdom of Atenveldt.

Her role as Seneschal is not the first office that Lady Hanna has held. She was Deputy Seneschal during the tenure of Meister Tor Von Butterberg and has served as Deputy Web Minister for her lord for the past two years.

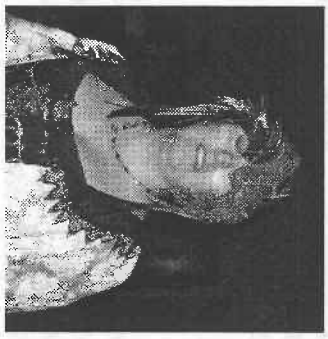

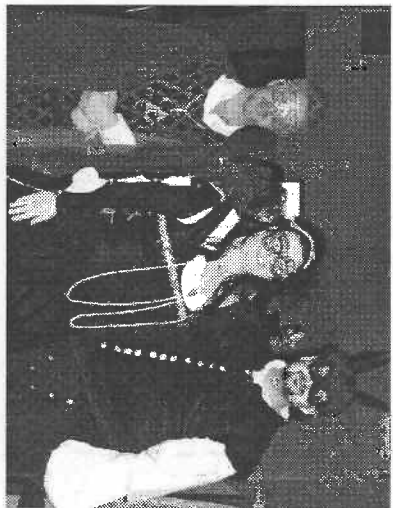

She met Wendell at a Christmas party through one of his friends from school. She says they "kept watching each other across the room all night." They were married in October of 1994 and own a home in Nampa.

Asked for words of wisdom, Kitty says, "Live each day to the fullest...and always have fun!"

May We Introduce

Lady Hanna Sabel Lowery

Arn Hold's new Seneschal is Lady Hanna Isabel Lowery, mundanely known as Kitty Wardle. She has been an active player in Arn Hold for some seven years, and "active" is not just a term.

Her Lord, Wendell (the Badger) Weller (Wendell Wardle), brought her to a fighter practice after being invited by Lord Thorvald. There, they met then Baron and Baroness Bruce and Lora, and the rest is history.

Kitty says that when they attended their first event - a camping event, no less - at Border Raid near Lewiston, there were both hooked.

Kitty says she has an SCA name, but not a persona as yet. That way, she says, she can be anyone at any time when she attends events.

She chose Hanna because she has always loved the name. "It's so elegant," she says. She put Isabel in the middle because she liked that one too, but felt there were already too many "Isabels." The Lowery is because she loves the Scots. She received her Award of

If we have missed any accomplishments or events or tournaments, please forgive us. Our Barony's members always represent their Barony and Kingdom in the best possible light, and we salute all of the efforts and endeavors of our populace. If you were not able to go to Estrella War this year, you really missed a LOT and should start planning now for next year!

March brings a unique and highly anticipated event, "Treasures of the New World." Lady Teckla and Lord Jean have planned an exciting and fun-filled day, as well as an exquisite new world feast and a unique fundraiser, a chocolate tasting (Mmmmm...) This is an event not to be missed! We look forward to seeing our populace in attendance.

We will also be attending the Coronation of Their Royal Highnesses, Sir Dahoud al-Dimashqi and Lady Shajara al Ameena in March. We hope to see you all there.

FROM THE CHRONICLER

On the first night I distributed the Moose Call, I found the name of the February cover. It was Baron Armond. I thank him for the beautiful submission that has now had an encore as a cover piece.

Thanks to all who keep submitting, and to those who have not yet, please do!

In Service,
Auracila de Medici
