

The Barony of Arn Hold's Moose Call

Their Excellencies Missive

Unto the People of Arn Hold are fondest Greetings sent by Sir Etienne Dupre and Mistress Morgan du Marc, Vicar and Vicaress of the best Barony in the Knowne World.

Congratulations to one of our newest members, Kaspar, who won the novice Thrown Weapons tournament and to Lady Nessa, Artemisia's new Equestrian Champion at Uprising. For those keeping score (and that would us!) – Arn Hold has provided back to back Equestrian Champions – VIVAT!

We would like to thank those of you who helped make our Uprising encampment so spectacular. For those who were not able to attend, the phrase we heard was “now this looks like a Barony”. Thanks to Lady Katherine for all of her hard work as Land Coordinator, to Lady Zhianna as the Potluck Coordinator and to Lord Malcolm for his work coordinating Arn Hold's contribution to the Queen's Tea. Thanks to Lord Mikhale and Lady Engelinne for taking the entire encampment to and from the event and for their help along with THL Ailesh, Lord Emris, Lady Annika, Lady Aeline, Lord Randulf, Lady Zhianna, Lord John, the good lady Signy, THL Balenor, Lord Malcolm, Lord Alim, Lady Nuala, and the many others who helped us set up and tear down the Encampment. Truly – without the help of these people, we would have had nothing. Our retinue, managed by Mistress Antonia, on Saturday night gets called out for special thanks – We made a grand showing.

As stated in Saturday's Court - We turned over to Their Majesties the names of those marvelous individuals who worked so hard to bring our vision to life at the War on Saturday. Not as specific award recommendations but simply to confirm that they are people of merit. The Arn Hold Rally and Relief Station were both HUGE successes and that is entirely due to the people who got up early to help us chop oranges, pickles and chocolate; who hauled water barrels, tables, chairs, flags and the shade pavilions up the hill and brought everything back home again and were so very kind to the fighters in purple. Again – THL Ailesh, Lord Emris, Lady Annika, the Fletcher family – Christian, Catelyn and Meaghan and Michael van den Woude; Lady Nuala, Lady Aelin, Lady Dionysia, Mistress Kelwin and young Gryffen were indispensable.

We received many, many compliments on how we as a Barony presented ourselves and that credit goes to all of you. And if we missed any names, please forgive us – it is not intentional.

We hope to have a similar set up at Raptor War, available to all who come out to play in the summer sun. Should you wish, any and all are welcome to assist.

Speaking of Raptor War – this is the Barony’s signature event as well as the Investiture of our new Baron and Baroness. We need work party assistance on June 23 and July 1 as well as volunteers at the event itself for things like security, camp criers, Baronial set up and take down, as well as site clean up. Let’s all work extra hard to put on a grand show for the rest of the Kingdom.

One year ago, we were asked to consider assisting our home Barony and 10 months ago, we agreed to be invested as your Vicar and Vicaress. While there has been some hard work involved, we have had a lot of fun and would like to thank you, as a group, for providing so much of that enjoyment. Since a number of people have asked or made comment; we do not plan to disappear, but may reduce some activities in order to let life catch up with us again. We are confident in Sir Fernando and Mistress Sycra’s abilities and grace and are sure that their hearts and hands will take great care of these lands.

Their Nextellencies Missive

Greetings Arn Hold,

We would first like to say we are profoundly honored and humbled to have this chance to serve this Barony that we happily call home.

We look forward to the joys and challenges of the next two years. The true heart of this Barony is every member of the populace. It takes us all to keep this “dream” we enjoy alive.

We issue this challenge each and every one of you--Find the thing here in Arn Hold that inspires you, that you love, that brings you joy and make it better. Don’t stand there and say, “Wouldn’t it be cool if someone did...” step up, do it or help someone else do it and keep our Barony moving forward.

We feel that all members of the Barony have good ideas or opinions and we hope that any one of you will come to us with your thoughts, regardless of rank or station, but know that we will make decisions that we feel are best for the Barony as a whole.

Finally, we would like to give our heartfelt thanks to Etienne & Morgan for all the hard work they have put in during their tenure as Vicar and Vicaress.

We are looking forward to serving you and this great Barony for the Honor and Glory of Arn Hold and Artemisia.

Seneschal's Missive

Fondest greetings,

A beautiful Camping and Event season has begun in the kingdom. I have so appreciated all of the SCAdians who have kept themselves and their loved ones safe and healthy while still enjoying the fun at Uprising and other activities. In particular:

- Thanks to all the parents and children's guardians who are keeping their children and guests safe by keeping them in sight and sound distance.
- Also thanks to the guardians who remember their paperwork for guest children. I would hate to turn away a child whose parents forgot to send the appropriate waivers and designations.
- And finally many thanks to those of you who show the good manners and chivalry of the SCA. I appreciated the many kindnesses of food, drink and pleasant company shown to me at Uprising.

Our goal is to educate, to have fun and to stay safe. Our camping events give us an excellent opportunity to enjoy SCA life. A few tips for safety:

1. Watch your campfires and coals. Coals stay hot much longer than you might expect. Make sure coals are completely cool before you dispose of them.
2. Watch your children. There are many unusual dangers at an outdoor camping event including Horses, Dogs, Sticks, Pits, Rose Bushes, Fires, and Fighting. Children should be monitored, but make sure they have fun too.
3. Watch your arms and armor. The Marshals are doing an excellent job of monitoring equipment and knowing all are staying safe makes it fun for all. Especially the Site Stewards.

Looking forward to many Demos and Events in the next month.

Seneschal

Random Carp That I Have Learned...

A look at modern practices and their medieval sources

By K. Braden von Sobernheim

I love a good sauce for food. The exquisite flavor that enhances a dish makes the palate explode like fireworks. The most famous sauce in the world has its origins in (not surprisingly) China. The Fujian province was a bustling trade center on the seas of the Far East. Traveling all over the region, they found a Vietnamese fish sauce, a pungent caramel liquid made out of salted and fermented anchovies that the Vietnamese call nuoc mam and the Thai call nam pla.

The Fujianese took this sauce with them through Southeast Asia, to Indonesia, Malaysia and came into contact with Dutch and British merchants along the Strait of Malacca, right around 1600. These traders from far off lands were intrigued by the substance, and took barrels of it home along with arrack (an early ancestor to rum) enough so that kecap factories were established on Java and Sumatra to make arrack and fish sauce (The Malay word for sauce is kecap).

The Fujianese spoke a dialect called Hokkien which is also still spoken in Taiwan. In Hokkien, the word for “preserved-fish sauce” is “鮭汁” literally 鮭(carp) 汁(juice) which is pronounced either “koe-chiap” or “ke-tchup.”

This fish sauce was a huge hit back in Europe and very profitable for both the makers (raw materials were very cheap) and the merchants (profit margin was huge because a little went a long way). Of course, recipes in the West have significantly modified this substance over 500 years from its original anchovy roots into what comes in a Heinz bottle (tomatoes first appeared in the recipe in the 19th century), but you can still readily find Taiwanese ke-tchup in its original fishy glory.

And now you know more random carp (juice).
